Congratulations New Graduates!
Allison and Rachel

Love,
The Lindemans

... and we've all "had the time of our lives"
... thank you Meredith College and best of wishes to the Class of 2007!

The Belton family

For all your outstanding achievements...

Adrienne Jicha Kralick

We are so proud of you!
"Thank you for the opportunity"
to witness four great years!

All our love,
Mom, Dad, and Jonathan

...make the most of every opportunity. Colossians

Margaret,

May your wisdom and confidence grow with each passing year. Enjoy life, know that you are loved. We are so proud of you!
Hugs & Kisses!

Dad, Mom, & Andrew

To: Julia Ann Marie Therese,

You are always in our hearts.
Happy, happy!

Love,
Daddy, Tom, and Mommy dear.

Anna,

Congratulations on achieving your fourth-grade ambition to attend Meredith. We are so proud of you and your accomplishments.

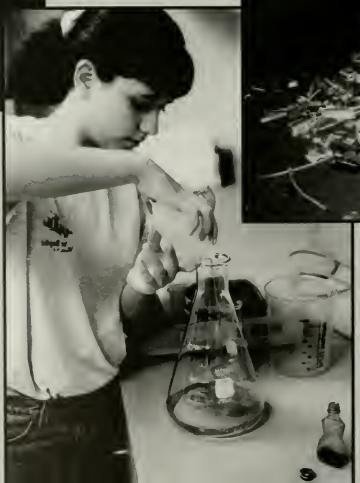
All our love,
Mother and Daddy

Dearest April,

Congratulations! Time has flown by so quickly. You have grown into a beautiful young woman who we are so very proud of. Words cannot fully express the joy we feel as you achieve your dreams. We can always count on you to finish whatever you start. You set goals and have the determination to strive to reach them until you achieve them, even when the going gets tough. Even in the deepest valleys, you didn't give up. Losing Grandma at the end of your freshman year and Mema at the end of your sophomore year were huge challenges. You are a strong individual and can overcome the obstacles as they present themselves. Continue to trust in the Lord as you go through life. He will always be with you. You possess such an inner beauty that we admire. You are always so eager to help, share and to serve others, so others may know Christ. That is really all that matters in this life. You have such a sweet spirit, and a big heart. We are so thankful for all the treasured memories and for God sharing such a precious daughter with us. You have brought so much love and joy to us. As you begin another phase of your life, always and you will find; knock and the door will be opened. Matthew 7:7

So as you achieve yet another milestone, graduating from Meredith, just know that Mema, Grandma and Granddaddy would have been so very proud of you and your accomplishments, just as we are. Some how I know they are smiling down on you. You were the apple of their eyes and you brought so much happiness to each of them. Always know you are loved so very much!

With All Our Love,
Mom & Dad



Carrie,

As you graduate from Meredith we hope your journey through life will be as wonderful as you are.

You have turned so many dreams into reality. We are so very proud of all that you have accomplished. We feel so blessed to have a beautiful daughter like you.

Remember, as you continue to pursue your dreams, and whatever you choose to do, we will always be there for you.

Also remember, there is never a wrong time to do the right thing. May God continue to bless you as you move into the next stage of your life.

We Love You!!
Mama and Daddy

"My wish, for you, is that this life becomes all that you want it to,
your dreams stay big, your worries stay small,
you never need to carry more than you can hold,
and while you're out there getting where you're getting to,
I hope you know somebody loves you, and wants the same things too,
This, is my wish."

Dawn,

We are so proud of all you have accomplished at Meredith. What a lovely, giving and talented woman you have become! You have always been our angel.

Love,
Mom, Dad and Tonda

Miss Kelly,

It seems like yesterday we held our beautiful little girl and wondered what life had in store for our precious little angel. In a blink of an eye it was time to put you on the school bus for kindergarten to start your educational path. And oh, what a wonderful educational path it has been! Not only for you, but a wonderful educational path for us too. We blinked again, and now it's time for our Meredith angel to graduate.

You have become a lovely, independent, determine young woman. Keep believing in yourself and you will continue to meet all your goals and your dreams will become reality. We are so proud of you and all your accomplishments at Meredith.

Congratulations on your graduation.

We love you,
Mom, Dad and Kevin

Rachel,

Sweet success. Congratulations on your graduation. Excellent shift!
We love you, and are supremely proud of you.

Mom and Dad

Mimi,

We love you dearly and thank the Lord that He has blessed us with your life and spirit.

With much, much love,
Mom and Dad

When you were born, the lives of your mother and father changed forever: for the rest of our lives we would be parents, whether we knew what we were doing or not. In any event, we had to learn fast, and we had to learn on the job, even as we held on for dear life. Though there were few things we knew for certain, we were sure that you were a gift that had been entrusted to us. We hope that we had proven ourselves to have been worthy of such trust.

There is so much to remember about you and how you have enriched our lives by your presence. Your birth a few days before Christmas made a joyous time become one of mystery and wonder for a time. It also caused a couple, who had married much later than their friends, to become part of a new family a few weeks short of their second wedding anniversary. As the first child, you were the first to ride a bicycle, to start school, to have your heart broken, and to find yourself living away from home in a dormitory with literally hundreds of strangers. As the first child, you were driven from within to be the best, and you refused, to be satisfied otherwise. As the first child, you are the first to leave and begin to strike out on your own.

We have been challenged, but we have had fun. There have been times of frustration, but we have always loved you as you are. Even as we sought to instill our values and experience in you, we have been reminded that you have caused us to grow and to change into who we are now. There have been times when we have come around a corner in the road only to find that the bridge across the river had burned. On those occasions, with love and patience, we have either found a way to ford the stream or to build a better bridge together.

As the first child, you either inherited or acquired from your father a love of Faulkner and Fitzgerald, an appreciation of good wine, the talent to write, and a willingness to raise questions for which there may be no answers. Having said that, it is fortunate that you are your mother's daughter in that you chose to cast your lot with a woman's college where you blossomed and demonstrated that you have a sense of adventure, a winsome and energetic personality, the precious knowledge of who you are, and a boundless love for all people. It all makes for an interesting and valuable combination for a young woman whom we love very much.

Your mother cried as we drove away from Meredith the Saturday we took you to college. Though I did not cry, my stomach was in knots. As proud as we were of you, it was hard to let go of our first child, and we were fearful of the unknown. Yet, had we not been able to do so, you would not be who you are today. We are older, and, hopefully, a little wiser for having been able to come this far with you. While this is a time to share memories, it is also a time to look ahead. Having said that, we are reminded that the moment you were born, time stood still. We wish it would do so now.

Mom and Dad

The Oak Leaves Staff would like to thank Meredith College's Marketing Department for their assistance with photography. Without their generous help, the yearbook staff would not have been able to produce such a successful representation of Meredith life.

Our staff would also like to thank our wonderful advisor, Wendy Savage, for her patience, guidance and support. She has served as yearbook advisor for two years and has challenged each staff member to reach new creative levels.
